

SLIM SEMORA aka "SUITCASE SLIM"

SLIM hails from Houston, Texas, performing a bone rattlin' blend of roots'n'blues, Americana & outlaw country. As a multi-instrumentalist, his unique rhythm & finger-picking style is highlighted by various guitars & stringed instruments, slide, harmonica, an old suitcase with foot pedal drum & foot tambourine.

Slim's original tunes are often reflective of his tumultuous past during his early years growing up in Texas. He also draws inspiration from legends such as Johnny Cash, Ray Charles, Waylon Jennings, Neil Young, Robert Johnson, John Lee Hooker, ZZ Top, JJ Cale, Elvis and more, and has been known to showcase their tunes with his own unique flair.

An accomplished musician, Semora has decades under his belt, having toured the States with various bands and owned recording studios in Austin, Houston & Wichita. He has worked with artists such as Slash of Guns'n'Roses and members of the Brian Setzer Orchestra (formerly Stray Cats). More recently as a solo performer he received accolades from Wilko Johnson (Dr Feelgood), and an original band member of Elvis whilst playing in Memphis. He is currently working on his third solo album.

Guaranteed to get those toes tappin'! Catch him while you can.

A fan at a festival says, "Like a band, but just one man!"

Wilko Johnson, original band member of Dr Feelgood says, "That's what I like!"
